

Want to Vote on November 7, 2011?

In order for you to exercise your right to vote in the upcoming Provincial Election you will have to produce PHOTO identification at the polls.

Elections Act 2011 - Evidence of identity and ordinary residence:

72.1(1) In this section, “address” means address as defined in the regulations.

(2) If a voter or other individual is required to provide satisfactory evidence of the voter’s or individual’s identity and ordinary residence pursuant to this Act, the satisfactory evidence that must be provided is one of the following:

(a) if the voter’s or individual’s name appears on the voter’s list, one original piece of identification that:

(i) shows the voter’s or individual’s photograph, name and address; and

(ii) is issued by the Government of Saskatchewan, the Government of Canada or an agency of those governments; or

(b) two pieces of prescribed information each of which establishes the voter’s or individual’s name and at least one of which establishes the voter’s or individual’s address.

2011, c.

If you do not have photo ID, you can get it at SGI.
